MS. KRISTI A. FURRER RECOGNIZED BY NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE

– Local Business Leader to Receive Congressional Order of Merit –

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The National Republican Congressional Committee (NRCC) announced this week that Ms. Kristi A. Furrer has been selected as a recipient of the 2007 Congressional Order of Merit award.

U.S. Representative Tom Cole (R-OK), Chairman of the NRCC, stated, “Ms. Furrer has long supported Republican ideals as they relate to the growth and stability of small business in this country. I look forward to Ms. Furrer’s continued participation as a key member of the Committee and offer my congratulations on the award.”

Those who are selected to receive the Congressional Order of Merit are invited to participate in periodic strategy briefings to provide input on economic and tax issues, as well as how to build broad-based support for conservative initiatives within the business community. Recipients are also permanently listed in the ranks of the Republican Honor Roll and the NRCC headquarters in Washington.

The NRCC is a political committee devoted to regaining the Republican majority in the U.S. House of Representatives.

The Business Advisory Council, established in 1995 by the National Republican Congressional Committee is a group of conservative businessmen and women who advocate a progressive, conservative, pro-business agenda. The Washington-based organization pools the expertise of business leaders from across the United States to ensure small business issues remain a priority among government leaders.
